Forty Foreign Delegates to Inter-Allied Veterans Federation Convention Due on Lorraine To-morrow

Will Land at Battery and Visit City Hall, Where Mayor Will Greet Them; Red Cross Seeks Funds

Forty foreign delegates to the third international convention of the Inter-Allied Veterans Federation will arrive in this city to-morrow. An elaborate program for the reception of the delegates has been worked out by R. E. Condon, of the American Legion. The delegates will come on the S. S. Lorraine to-morrow morning and will be greeted by American destroyers, naval and police reserve airplanes. These will meet the Lorraine off Sandy Hook.

The Police Boat John P. Hyland will go down the bay with the Legion representatives and the foreign delegates will board the police boat. They will be landed at the Battery and from there will go to City Hall where Mayor Hyland will extend the greetings of the city. The reception will be followed by a parade up Fifth Avenue and across Fifty-fourth Street to the Pennsylvania Station. Police, National Guard, Regular Army and Marine contingents will participate.

The train carrying the delegates will depart at noon for Washington. In the capital the first official act of the foreign fighting men will be to pay their homage at the grave of America's Unknown Soldier in Arlington Cemetery. The party will arrive in New Orleans on the morning of October 12, the day their convalescence opens.

The delegates have announced that their convention will be kept absolutely free from political influences. Their chief effort will be to promote world peace. The American delegates expect to explain our immigration laws. Care of the disabled in all countries will be discussed.

A return trip with receptions in several cities will be arranged by the Legion whose guests the delegates are. The same train crew that handled Marshal Foch's special last year will be in charge. The delegates return to New York October 26 and will sail on October 28 on the George Washington. Entertainment features here will be worked out by the Mayor's Committee on Welcome, of which Rodman Wamsley is chairman, and the American Legion of New York city and state.

Appeal for Baseball Money
Martin W. Littleton, chairman of the Citizens' Committee in the coming Red Cross Roll Call, has sent a letter to Commissioner Landis making formal application, in behalf of the hundreds of ex-service men and their families who the Red Cross is aiding, for a share of the $20,000 receipts of Thursday's game at the Polo Grounds, which are to be devoted to the aid of war veterans.

In his letter Mr. Littleton calls attention to the fact that $200,000 will be needed in Manhattan alone to enable the New York County Chapter of the Red Cross to continue uncurtailed its work during the coming year and that ten per cent of this amount will be devoted to ex-service men and their families.

Past State Commander William F. Deagan, of the American Legion, has added his commendation to the plan, especially in view of the heavy demands which are to be made upon the resources of organizations aiding ex-service men in the coming year.

Mrs. August Belmont, vice chairman of the Citizens' Committee, and Mrs. Payne Whitney, chairman of a committee of 200 women workers in the Roll Call, have supplemented the appeal.

A smoker will be given by the 302d Field Signal Battalion Association at the 77th Division Clubhouse, 27 West Twenty-fifth Street, on the night of November 18. Pictures of the outfit in action will be displayed if the War Department grants the request of the organization. These will be actual moving pictures and not stereoscopic views. John P. Dolan, chairman of the committee, has requested that every man who served in the outfit be present at the smoker.

Armistice Ball at Newburgh
Commander Frederick Kingston, of Judson P. Galloway Post, of Newburgh, has appointed committees to arrange for the annual armistice ball which will be held in the local armory on November 10. Those appointed are: Nelson Mooney, chairman; Charles Eipper, John Howard and Vincent McNulty, chairman of the door committee; Edward Johnston, Frederick Daggett, Edward Seifried and Terence McDermott, floor committee.

Indones Victory Ball
At the last meeting of Jane A. Delano Post this resolution was adopted: "Whereas, The New York County organization has assumed the responsibility of promoting a victory ball for Armistice Eve at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, and

"Whereas, It is hoped to make this an annual function for all time, securing the patronage of public spirited men and women prominent in society as well as those holding high office in the city, state and nation, and

"Whereas, This one night in all the year should be devoted to the Legion as a unit, and to the furtherance of all efforts toward the relief of our sick, disabled and unemployed comrades,

"Be It Resolved, Jane A. Delano Post 344 pledges not to stage any affair during the month of November in any year, and promises its whole-hearted support to the New York County organization in the promotion of the victory ball Armistice Eve.

"And Be It Further Resolved, That all the posts comprising the New York County organization be requested not to hold any affair during November of each year and 'fall in line' with the parent organization, the New York County, and help in making Legion night historical and one that not only Legionnaires but all people will come to regard as a night consecrated to the remedial work of the Legion among those men and women who served their country in her time of need and who now need our help.

"And Be It Further Resolved, That the national organization be requested to take steps to inaugurate some suitable form of ceremony or entertainment for Armistice Eve wherever Legion posts are located, the proceeds to go toward the welfare work among our disabled and unemployed in the various localities throughout the United States."
